

MISSOURI ELITE FC
2010/2011
PLAYER COMMITMENT FORM

Congratulations on your commitment to play soccer for Missouri Elite FC for the 2010/2011 soccer season. We are excited to have your daughter as part of our club and look forward to not only the upcoming season, but the relationship we are building with you and your daughter for her upcoming soccer years! Participation in the Missouri Elite FC in Springfield, Missouri is a year-long, 12 month commitment. All players will be on the Missouri Elite FC roster for their team from July 1, 2010 until June 30, 2011. Attendance to all team training events and games is mandatory and absences will result in a loss of playing time for tournaments and league games. If a conflict arises, the player needs to let the coaching staff know as soon as possible so arrangements can be worked out to the benefit of all persons involved. Please note that the coaches decide who plays and that playing time is dependent not only on the players' soccer ability, but also training session attendance and overall attitude towards the coaches, teammates, soccer referees and parents.

MISSOURI ELITE FC PARENT GUIDELINES

Parents: Below is a list of guidelines for parent behavior within the club. I hope these guidelines will help you understand the vision of the club and help support your daughters in the best way possible.

1. The coach is the coach and the parent is the parent. Period. Please do not question coaching decisions. You are welcome to discuss the reasons behind a decision with the coach but it is not appropriate to do so on the sideline directly before, during or after a game.
2. If you would like to speak with a coach, please wait until the day AFTER a game or after the next practice. It is not appropriate to approach a coach after a game because emotions are usually running high during that time. If you plan on speaking with a coach, please know that only your daughter will be discussed. In no way will a coach discuss another specific player's role on the team.
3. Sideline behavior.....you are there to be a "supportive" parent. Players and parents are NOT allowed to yell at opposing players, coaches or referees. We, as representatives of Missouri Elite FC, are ALWAYS going to be respectful of the game. If something needs to be addressed with anyone, especially the referee, it will be the coach's responsibility. If a coach feels like a parent or player is out of line, the coach will take action, which may include asking the parent to leave the field.
4. Additional sideline behavior....the coaching staff has a plan each time they step on the field. Please refrain from coaching your daughter or other players from the sideline. It is vital that a player can hear coaching instructions and player support. If you still feel the need to yell...."way to go" or "well done" are always great options!
5. We cannot control your opinions of players, coaching decisions or the game itself, but we do ask you keep your negative opinions away from the sideline, team/club events, and any grouping of Missouri Elite FC players/parents. We want to create a positive, self improvement environment for the girls!
6. As the girls get older, the coaching staff will expect them to take on more responsibility. If you have a high school player, we expect them to be responsible and call with conflicts/illnesses. If you have a U12/13/14 player, we expect them to call with conflicts/illnesses as they become comfortable with the coaching staff. If you have a U11, communication from a parent is completely acceptable.
7. Line of Communication
 - FIRST: Player----Coach
 - SECOND: Parent----Coach
 - THIRD: Parent/Player-----Director
8. Finally, we are an open coaching staff and we will always put the girls first. There may be some rough patches but know that we are making decisions that will make the girls well rounded ladies, not just soccer players. Keeping in mind the guidelines above, Please feel free to contact anyone off the staff at any time to discuss anything!
